

The Holy Spirit

Romans 14:15

Sermon Transcript by Rev. Ernest O'Neill

Have you personally received the Holy Spirit? Now to make it a little clearer to all of us maybe I should say I'm not asking you, have you been filled with the Holy Spirit? I understand we all have various ideas about being filled with the Holy Spirit or being baptized with the Holy Spirit. Some of us think that occurs "all in one ball of wax" as we say in America. We get the whole ball of wax at once when we become Christians. Some of us feel that way and that's all right. Others of us feel, no you're baptized with the Holy Spirit until maybe two or three years after you've become a Christian.

I'm not asking that, loved ones. I'm asking have you received the Holy Spirit, just received him? Maybe you're not yet filled with him. Maybe you're not baptized with him but have you received the Holy Spirit personally? You may say I'm a Christian; of course I've received the Holy Spirit. I must have, mustn't I? Because I am a Christian I'm regarded as a disciple of Christ. So, I take it I've received the Holy Spirit.

Yet loved ones do you see that there are examples in the New Testament of people who were regarded as disciples, actually as Christian disciples, yet they had not received the Holy Spirit.

Why I'm sharing this with you is not to get at you and prove that you're not really a Christian. But I think that many of you who are Christians feel you lack something in your Christian life. Often when I share with you the victorious life -- victory over anger, envy and jealousy -- and talk to you about dying with Christ, being filled with the Holy Spirit and having victory over sin of all kinds, some of you who believe you are Christians when you hear that message become like withered flowers. You just think I can't be that. Oh you want me to try more. You want me to try to overcome my sin. Pastor I love you and I want to be that but I can't, I can't work up the strength to do it. Many of us who think of ourselves as Christians when this message is preached that we can be delivered from self, delivered from the power of sin and live above anger, jealousy and envy, instead of us finding a rising in our hearts to it we find a heaviness about us.

Now here's the point. When you've received the Holy Spirit, even if you're just a little child in God, even if you're only a little baby in Jesus, even if it only happened yesterday, when you receive the Holy Spirit at conversion and someone comes along and preaches this glorious victory over even inward anger and jealousy, the Holy Spirit within you rises to that. He rises to that because he knows he's able to bring that about in your life. So you sense a rising to it. Now you sense an inability too but the rising is stronger than the inability. Even though you may feel at times terrible and the conviction of sin may get unbearable yet always there will be that bright little light inside you that will keep saying yes, yes but I can do it in you. I can do it through you.

Now, if you haven't received the Holy Spirit when you were born of God, if somehow or another you've got into some kind of "half baked" experience and you haven't received the Holy Spirit, then when somebody like me preaches victory over sin, the baptism with the Holy Spirit, the fullness of the Holy Spirit and victory over inward anger, jealousy and envy there will be no rising in your heart. You'll valiantly and bravely feel because you love me or you've listened for so many Sunday's, you'll feel you ought to try and do that but on the whole it will be a depressing message to you. On the whole you'll kind of feel I couldn't. I can hardly make it as I am over outward sin and what are you talking about inward sin?

Now do you see that? That's why I am sharing this with you, so that you'll know where you are. In fact there were people in the New Testament who were regarded as Christian disciples, thought of themselves as Christian disciples, and hadn't received the Holy Spirit. Now let me show you them and where they are mentioned. It's in Acts Chapter 19:1-6

"While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the upper country and came to Ephesus. There he found some disciples. And he said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" And they said, "No, we have never even heard that there is a Holy Spirit." And he said, "Into what then were you baptized?" They said, "Into John's baptism." And Paul said, "John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, Jesus." On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they spoke with tongues and prophesied."

That of course was the baptism of the Holy Spirit that they came into. The point was that they hadn't even received the Holy Spirit in any form before that. It seems to me many of us are like that.

Whether we are to go on and be baptized with the Holy Spirit and filled with the Holy Spirit all at once, or whether we have to receive the Holy Spirit and then walk for a year or so until we are filled with the Holy Spirit, many of us are in the same position as these people in regard to the Holy Spirit. We haven't really received the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Now some of us get confused because we think, yes but we have gone through some of the things that are connected with Christian conversion. Maybe you'd look back to that chapter. It's in Acts chapter 2. You get there the clear direction, (given after the very first Christian sermon was ever preached) the first direction as to how you become Christian. I think some of us have gone through some of these things. It's Acts 2:38. And Peter said to them, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit."

Now it seems to me that there are many of us here that have in some sense repented. You see there are 5 elements here if you noticed. There's repentance. There's being baptized. There's in the name of Jesus Christ. There's the forgiveness of sins and there's the gift of the Holy Spirit. Many of us have come through some of those things. Many of us have repented in some sense. Many of us have been baptized either as children or even as adults in Baptist churches or been confirmed in some way. Some of us have believed in the name of Jesus Christ. Some of us have experienced the forgiveness of our sins. But could it be that some of us have not received the gift of the Holy Spirit?

In other words could it be that you have come through some of the experiences that involve becoming a Christian but you have not entered into the vital one, which is the gift of the Holy Spirit? That's the new thing. I don't know if you realize it but all the other things except for Jesus, three of the other five elements were in the old covenant. People repented in the old covenant. People experienced the forgiveness of their sins in the old covenant.

Psalm 32:1-2 says, "Blessed is the man whose sins are covered, to whom the Lord imputes no iniquity." Do you know where that piece comes from "he has removed our transgressions as far from us as the east to the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us?" It comes from Psalm 103, from the Old Covenant.

So the Old Covenant had an experience of forgiveness of sins. The old covenant had an experience of repentance. The old covenant even had an experience of some kind of circumcision or baptism because you remember John the Baptist baptized people for the forgiveness of their sins. What the old covenant didn't have was Jesus and the Holy Spirit. It's the gift of the Holy Spirit that makes you a Christian.

Now I wonder why some of us may not have received the gift of the Holy Spirit. Loved ones, I think if you look back to Acts 19. I think it's because some of us may have entered into this kind of an experience that these people did when Apollos baptized them. It's in Acts 19:3. And he said, "Into what then were you baptized?" They said, "Into John's baptism." (That's the old covenant baptism.) And Paul said, "John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, (then Paul adds) that is, Jesus."

What Apollos did was the same as John. He said, "Repent and God will forgive you your sins. Come down to the river and I'll baptize you in the name of him who is to come. I'll baptize you in the name of the Messiah who will eventually come and deliver us."

I wonder how many of us here have entered into that kind of general experience of conversion. In other words, Jesus is not very vital to us in our Christian conversion.

I'll tell you how it can come about. I think there are many of us that have been brought up in church. We believe all the things that Christians believe. We think they're good. We believe in church and we come to church. Actually we believe in God and we pray to God. We believe that he oversees all of our lives and that we should try to be like him. That's as far as our conversion goes. That's as far as it goes.

We talk about the Lord in everyday life. We say, oh the Lord did this or the Lord does that. Or, I think the Lord wants me to do that. Or, I'm trusting the Lord for this. But we don't mean the Lord Jesus Christ who is our personal friend and savior. We mean generally the Lord the way they meant they were baptized in the name of him who was to come. We don't know who that is but we're baptized in the name of him who is to come.

To us the Lord is a general term that means God. We are in fact theists. That is, we are like many people who aren't particularly Christian. We believe in God. We respect God. We're theists. That's what a theist is. He's a believer in God. But we don't have a personal relationship with Jesus. We don't know Jesus as our dear friend. Jesus is not very vital in our experience.

In other words, we have the experience of repentance. To some extent the experience of baptism or confirmation, to some extent the forgiveness of our sins -- but Jesus is not very real to us and not very vital.

When we talk about the Lord we talk about the Lord much as a follower of Islam or a Buddhist would talk about the Lord. A spiritualist even will talk about certain lords. We talk in the general term "the lord" but we don't mean the dear Lord Jesus Christ who is our personal friend and savior whom we know face to face.

Now loved ones I think some of us can come into a general relationship with God that does not involve Jesus in any way. I think some of us are in an even more subtle position. Some of us were in real trouble with drugs at one time or with alcohol or in real trouble with our marriages or real trouble with our careers. We were desperate and we needed to be delivered. We cried out to God in agony; "God help me". God graciously came down and delivered us out of our troubles. We have a great sense of gratitude to God as in some sense our savior but Jesus is not dear and personal to us. It's just a general sense that "If you knew what God did for me so many years ago then you'd believe in him like I do." It's believing in God as a providential deliverer -- not as a savior from sin and hell. Because Jesus is again lacking in our experience we have not received the gift of the Holy Spirit.

See loved ones, it's only if Jesus is dear and precious to you that you receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. He gives the gift of the Holy Spirit personally to you. Now if you say to me, "Brother, how do I come to that?" You come to that by a real conviction of sin. That's the only thing that will drive you to Jesus. That's the only thing that will drive you into his arms -- if you'll allow the Holy Spirit to convict you deeply of your helplessness and hopelessness before God.

I remember doing that. I was so anxious to find reality with God that I just read the Bible and I saw yes, "all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. " That's me and it's you. We've fallen short of God's glory and the wages of sin is death. That's it. It's death. There is no other solution. There's no other answer to it. Death is the only answer to sin. If you have failed in even one point of the law the Bible says you are guilty of all of it. Maybe you haven't stolen but you've had unclean thoughts, then it's as if you've stolen and killed and murdered and everything. So it doesn't matter what little fallen short there has been. If you've fallen short at all you are due death eternally. You are due the fires of Hell.

Until you see that, you will not feel that any great change is needed such as Jesus alone can bring. But as you allow the Holy Spirit to convince you that you are a helpless and a hopeless sinner and that there is no way in which you can please God -- that it is to "him that works not but believes on him that justifies the ungodly" (Romans 4:5), that he will declare you righteousness, your faith is declared as righteousness -- only when you see that, will God begin to make Jesus real to you.

In other words you need to see that you are hopeless and helpless. You are shot through with selfishness. Your anger is evidence of a rebellion against God that is deeper than anything you can see. You want your own way and you're determined to trample over anybody to get it. Your life is full of lies, dishonesty, bearing false witness against your neighbor, anger and sarcasm. All those things are sins and God cannot let you into his heaven with those. The only thing he can do with you is destroy you and cast you into Hell forever - unless -- Jesus has gone there for you.

Loved ones, as you begin to realize that Jesus has gone to Hell for you and he has borne those sins in his own body on the tree for you and allowed God his father to destroy those sins in him, only when you see that do you grab for Jesus as your only hope in utter self abasing repentance. You grab for him desperately and you say, "Lord Jesus I'll do anything. I'll get rid of any of the things that have caused your death on Calvary. Show me them and I'll get rid of them." Then you turn from yourself utterly and completely.

When you've done that you realize there's nothing inside because you've turned away from everything that was you. Then it is that Jesus says, "I will give you the Holy Spirit, my counselor. He will come into your heart and he will be your guide. Now receive him now as you would receive me and begin to attend to him and listen to him and obey him." As you do that the Holy Spirit grows and grows within you and becomes more and more real to you.

Loved ones, the Holy Spirit begins to take Jesus' own character and make it real inside you. The Holy Spirit is a real person. He isn't just a force. He isn't just an influence. He isn't just what we call "you changing your mind." The Holy Spirit is the third person of the Trinity. He comes into your life and he's a real whole person inside you. He has a mind. He has a mind like yours. He has emotions like yours. He has a will like yours. He is a real person inside you. He can give you thoughts that you have not got. He can give you his own desires. He can beget his own wishes in you. As you make room for him more and more in your life the Holy Spirit begins to give you the very character of Jesus. He begins to light that character up for you. Somebody has said the Holy Spirit is the one who takes the things that happen 2000 years ago and he makes them living realities here today in your life.

You know we've used the illustration before. It's like coming into the art gallery in London and seeing all the magnificent paintings around the walls. You come in at night and the custodian says you should see that beautiful painting of Rembrandt there and the one by Gainsborough is magnificent. You say, "I wish I could see it but it's dark in here." It's like that before the Holy Spirit is received into your life.

I talk up here about things of God and you try to imagine them. You try to think, yes I think I've felt that. I think I know what that feels like. Then the custodian says, "Wait a minute. I'll turn the lights on." He turns the lights on and you see all the magnificent paintings for the first time. All the beauty of it thrusts in upon your mind and your eyes.

It's like that when you receive the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit suddenly takes all the magnificent things of God and of Jesus and he makes them real to you. He makes them real so that you'll understand them. Never fear, don't think it will be just so that I understand or somebody else understands. He knows you. He adapts it to your understanding. The Holy Spirit takes the things of Jesus and makes them real to you. He changes your own life. He changes your life.

Do you remember the time that Jesus went to that house? I think it was Mary Magdalene, the one who was a prostitute, that came in with a box of perfumed ointment. She washed his feet, (you remember they used to wash their feet when they came in from the dusty roads) and dried them with her hair. Then she broke the box of ointment to put it on his feet. Remember in John 12 it says "and the house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment."

Now when we talk about the anointing of the Holy Spirit or the anointment of the Holy Spirit that's what he does. He fills your own life with the fragrance of Jesus' beauty. Your conscience becomes something sweet. Your thoughts become something beautiful. They are filled with the fragrance of Christ's love and his joy. You find that rising from within you so that it comes up from within. You don't know where it comes from. You haven't produced it yourself. It isn't because you read a book that teaches you to think a certain way. It's just a spontaneous rising from within you of the beautiful thoughts that Jesus is having at the right hand of God.

The Holy Spirit fills your life with the fragrance of Jesus and of course fills every place where you go with the fragrance of Jesus. Your home begins to sense a sweetness in your whole life. Your business people begin to sense a fragrance about you that they can't explain. There's a sweetness that comes into the relationships that you have and the conversations you have are a kind of heavenly spiritual thing that nobody can define. The Holy Spirit brings it about in your life. The Holy Spirit does those things. The Holy Spirit anoints you with the beauty and the strength of Jesus. Now that's why it's so vital to receive the Holy Spirit.

You remember Paul says in Galatians "did you receive the Holy Spirit by works of law or by faith?" Of course he implies that you receive the Holy Spirit by faith. You receive the Holy Spirit by faith. That's it. It's not by feeling, have I got the Holy Spirit? You'll never feel him. He isn't emotion. You receive him by faith. You simply say, "Lord Jesus you said if I was baptized and repented in your name for the forgiveness of my sins I would receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. Lord Jesus, I want to receive that gift of the Holy Spirit now clearly today. So that from now on I can begin to listen to him and can begin to obey him and allow him to grow within me."

Loved ones, even if you do that in cold blood today God will honor you, God will honor you. Jesus will give you the gift of the Holy Spirit if you do that plainly and simply this morning. Then as you listen to the Holy Spirit he will show you more and more things in your life. If you trust him he will actually do things in you.

You'll come into certain situations where you'll feel, "I can't face this." There's a situation that I can't face at work. I just don't know how to do it. I don't know what to do. If you look to the Holy Spirit and say "Holy Spirit will you bring about the responses that I need to produce in this situation tomorrow?" If you ask him to do that and put your faith in him the Holy Spirit will miraculously bring you through that experience. If you ask the Holy Spirit to show you what is keeping you back from a deeper closeness with God the Holy Spirit will lead you into all truth about those things.

So loved ones do you see being a Christian is above all things receiving the gift of the Holy Spirit. There's no way in which you can be filled with the Holy Spirit or baptized with the Holy Spirit if you haven't at least received the Holy Spirit.

I would encourage your hearts if you're sitting there thinking, "Pastor what do you mean received? Do you mean I have to have a feeling?" No loved ones, no. You receive him by faith. If you say as I used to say, "The intellect rebels against it doesn't it? How do I know I've got him if I can't feel him?" Faith is believing that God will keep his promise. He will give you the gift of the Holy Spirit as he promised. If you will repent in the name of Jesus for the forgiveness of your sins then God will give you the Holy Spirit.

Now I wonder if any of you are here this morning that have never received the Holy Spirit. Maybe because of the way the gospel is preached to you? Or through maybe the way you entered into what you felt was becoming a Christian? Or maybe you were confirmed in a Lutheran Church? Or maybe you were baptized in a Baptist Church and really didn't understand what it was about. Somehow or another you feel today that you are a Christian and yet you have never ever said quietly to Jesus, "Lord Jesus, I receive the gift of the Holy Spirit today." I'm not talking about the baptism of the Holy Spirit or the fullness of the Holy Spirit. We'll deal with that in later Sundays. I'm talking about just receiving the Holy Spirit as a born again Christian. If you haven't done that I think you should just come forward to the altar when we have our heads bowed and the organ is playing. I won't even pray out loud. I'll just do what Peter and John did. Peter and John came and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit and laid their hands on them.

That may be what you should do this morning. If you've been feeling, "Well, the things that you talk about I want to enter into but really I don't have anything rising within me. I just have a lot of dedication. I don't feel a rising of Jesus within me." Then loved ones first receive by faith the gift of the Holy Spirit. Do that first and then begin to listen to the Holy Spirit as he speaks to you through this coming week and through the coming months. Allow him to lead you on into the fullness and baptism of the Holy Spirit.

First settle that you're a Christian. Settle that you're one who has received the gift of the Holy Spirit -- not just that you're a mortal person or a person who has reformed their life or that you're a theist or a believer in God or one who is trying to be a good churchgoer. Don't. Put yourself in the position of a New Testament Christian -- one who has been baptized in the name of Jesus for the forgiveness of your sins and who has received the gift of the Holy Spirit by faith.

If you need to make that move this morning and you make it the Holy Spirit will change your life. You'll begin to have a voice and a Counselor within you that you have never known before. You'll begin to have the beginnings of a strength and a life and a power within you that will lead you through to victory over even inward sin. It will lead you into the fullness and the baptism of the Spirit.

So will you decide? Decide if you should do it now. If you believe you should, then come up, kneel for a moment or two, I will lay my hands on you and then you should go back. Go back in faith because the laying on of hands is simply what Jesus told us to do. There is no power in me doing that. It is what Jesus told us to do if we wanted to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. Our faith is shown in his words and doing what his words tells us. That's why we do that. There is no power in any man's hands. We are simply doing what Jesus told us to do if we wanted to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. Every time we behave as simple children before him he gives us all the wonders of his riches.

So maybe as Marilyn plays and we bow our heads in prayer, you'll just come up. After that I'll pronounce the benediction. Let us pray.

Dear Father, we thank you that you have given us an opportunity this morning to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit by the laying on of hands as you did it in New Testament times. So Lord we come now and bow before you and receive the gift of the Holy Spirit in Jesus' name. Receive the gift of the Holy Spirit in the name of Jesus.
